BANGALORE A-Z

STREET ATLAS & INDEX

karnataka state council for science and technology

December 1989

HOW TO USE THE BANGALORE A - Z

1. If you want to have an overview of the arrangement of the maps in this book, please refer to the INDEX MAP on pages 2 and 3. This gives an indication of the main localities and the page numbers on which the detailed maps are to be found. For example JAYANAGAR is covered on page numbers 79, 80 and 81.

2. If you know the name name of the road where a place is located, please refer to the INDEX TO STREETS starting on page 101. This will indicate the map number and the square in the map on which the road is located. Thus if you are looking for A.A.Ali Road, the index indicates A.A.Ali Rd H2, H4;44. This means that this road is shown in square H2 and H4 on page 44. Please note that the page numbers are shown in boxes on top corners of the page.

3. If you know the locality where a place is located, please refer to the INDEX TO LOCALITIES starting on page 97. Each locality, Extension or village name is followed by reference to the map page number(s). For example, Adugodi 69 means that Adugodi is shown in page 69.

4. For further details please refer to the PUBLISHERS NOTE on page 139.

PUBLISHERS'NOTE

It is unfortunately a common sight in Bangalore to find hapless citizens and visitors, with frustration writ large on their faces, trying to locate some address in Bangalore, particularly in the sprawling new extensions which have helped to give Bangalore the status as the fastest growing city in India. This handy street atlas and index has been prepared mainly to help the citizens to find their way easily through the city.

These maps are based on aerial photographic survey specially carried out in 1987-88 to cover Bangalore city and its surroundings. The street maps included in this atlas cover an area of 276 square kilometers. Most of the maps cover an area 2 km in the North-South direction and 1.5 km in the East-West direction. The only exceptions are maps for the areas in and around K.R.Market. Here each map covers an area of 1 km by 0.75km. Due to the unavoidable distortions in the aerial photographs, there is a certain amount of variation in the linear scales in the maps. Thus it is not advisable to use the maps for deriving accurate distances etc.

The index map on pages 2 and 3 shows the areas covered in the atlas. It also shows the grid system used. The origin is taken in the city near Bangalore jail. A grid at intervals of 1/2 km is placed about this origin and the resulting squares are labelled by letters in the east-west direction and numbers in the north-south direction.

A list of street names and a list of area names are provided after the detailed area maps. To locate a particular street, please refer to the Index to streets which indicates the page and square where it is located. Thus A. A. Ali Road H2,H4;44 indicates that the road starts in square H2 and ends in square H4 on page 44. If you wish to refer to the maps of a particular locality, you could refer to the Index to localities. For example, the area Adugodi is covered in map 69.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This exercise of producing a road map atlas is an offshoot of a project convened by Dr.S.R. Valluri, former Director of National Aeronautical Laboratory, Bangalore for devising and implementing a citizen and service oriented house numbering system for Bangalore city.

We thank Mr.Gopala Reddy, Secretary, Department of Science and Technology, Government of Karnataka, Mr.H.G.V. Reddy, Chairman, Bangalore Development Authority, Mr.A. TASKS FOR THE FUTURE

This first edition of Bangalore A-Z may be looked upon as an initial step in keeping an up-to-date street map of our City. Being the first edition, it is likely that there would be errors in the maps, for which we cannot accept any responsibility. We would be thankful, however, to receive feedback from the users by way of constructive suggestions and pointing out of specific errors. We are providing self addressed, pre-paid post cards for your ready use. We would endeavour to incorporate your suggestions in subsequent editions. A second major task is to incorporate road names to those which appear unnamed at present. We are taking up this matter with he civic authorities and the government and hope that this information can be provided in subsequent editions.

Finally we welcome feedback from the users on the utility of this road atlas and hope that it helps the citizens of Bangalore and visitors alike in getting to their destinations without much trouble.
